MY CO-VICTIM, THE WING-MAN, WAS AS HELPLESS AS I. BUT WHILE I STRUGGLED, CURSING, WITH THE SHACKLES THAT HELD ME CAPTIVE, HE HUNG LIMPLY AND PRAYED FOR A QUICK DEATH--

CHARLES ATLAS, World's No. 1 Body Builder, says:

Don't Be Half A Man!

LET ME SHOW How I Can Make You a Real HE-MAN From Head to Toe — in Just 15 Minutes a Day!

Take a good honest look at yourself! Are you proud of your body — or are you satisfied to go through life being just "half the man" you could be? No matter how ashamed you are of your present physical condition — or how old or young you are — the "sleeping" muscles already present in your body can turn you into a real HE-MAN! Believe me, I know — because I was once a skinny, scrawny 97-pound half-alive weakling! People used to laugh at my build and make fun of me. I was ashamed to strip for sports or the beach... shy of girls... afraid of healthy competition.

HOW I CHANGED FROM A "MOUSE" TO A MAN!

One day, I discovered a secret that changed me from a timid, frightened scarecrow into "The World's Most Perfectly Developed Man" — a "magic formula" that can help turn you, too, into a marvellous physical specimen... a real HE-MAN from head to toe... a man who STANDS OUT in any crowd! What's my secret? "DYNAMIC-TENSION" — the natural method! No theory. No gadgets or contraptions. You just do as I did. Simply take the "sleeping" muscles already present inside your own body — build them up — use them every day in walking, bending over, reaching, even sitting! Almost before you know it, you're covered with a brand-new suit of beautiful, rock-hard SOLID MUSCLE!

MY SECRET BUILDS MUSCLES FAST!

Just 15 minutes each day in the privacy of your room is all it takes to make your chest and shoulder muscles swell so big they almost split your coat seams... turn your fists into sledge-hammers... build mighty legs that never tire! Mail coupon today for my famous book showing how "Dynamic-Tension" can give you a Body by Atlas. Charles Atlas, Dept. 6010 115 E. 23 St., New York, N. Y. 10010.

INCREDIBLE, NEDIBLE INFO TO STUN YOUR SIX SENSES AND SOOTHE YOUR SECRET SOUL!

ITEM! January 5, 1972! Mark that date in your memory-book, faithful one — 'cause that's the night the batty Bullpen got it all together at Carnegie Hall, in the hectic heart of New York City! As we told you last month, the whole mangle was called "A MARVELOUS EVENING WITH STAN LEE"—and it was a way-out compendium of music, magic, and madcap Marvel mayhem! Smilin' STAN himself was Master of Ceremonies — presiding over the frantic goings-on and reading dynamic dialogue from some of his greatest masterpieces, while images of mighty Marvel superheroes flitted across a giant movie-screen. A trio of our titanic artists got into the act, too, as Jazzy JOHNNY ROMITA, Happy HERB TRIMPE, and Big JOHN BUSCEMA did sensational sketches of Captain America, of Greenskin, and Thor — which in turn were projected onto that selfsame screen. (There was a passel of our carvortin' characters in actual attendance, too, including Spidey, Daredevil, Doc Doom, and even J. Jonah Jameson himself!) The standing-room-only crowd exploded with applause, also, at the roster of famous names who had gathered to pay homage to the madness that is Marvel: World-famous film director ALAIN RESNAIS translated a few of the Silver Surfer's most awe-inspiring soliloquies into his native French; and there were also a few pungent paragraphs about our heroes which were intoned by radio personalities ALEX BENNETT and EARL DOUD, by actors RENE AUBERJONIS and CHUCK MCCANN (you've seen the latter a zillion times as the "Hi Guy" neighbor on the other side of the medicine cabinet in those Right Guard commercials), and neo-journalist TOM WOLFE, resplendent in red, white, and blue as he read about — you guessed it — Captain America. As for the music we mentioned above, most of it was provided by the far-famed CHICO HAMILTON PLAYERS — but some more Marvel madmen got into the act, too, as Hectic HERBIE and Bashful BARRY SMITH plunked a couple of wild electric guitars while Rasically ROY THOMAS belted out a rousin' rocker or two! Then, for the grand finale, just about everybody in the whole bled Bullpen crowded onto stage to sing the Merry Marvel Marching Society theme-song — while, not to be outdone, dozens of cheering fans rushed onstage as well, and the show closed amid a revel of handshaking and autograph-signing all 'round. And that was that! All in all, it was a wildly successful evening — and not necessarily the last of its kind, either! And, if there were a few bleary eyes and sore throats among the Bullpenners come the morning of the 6th — well, that's show biz, people!

MARVELOUS MINI-ITEMS: We've just barely got room to tell you about a

STAN LEE'S SOAPBOX

Whoa! Hold it! Stop everything! Before you pick up your pen to add to the thousands of angry letters we've already received, give us a chance to explain! It seems that almost everyone out there in Marveldom Assembled has written to castigate us for not printing announcements of our Carnegie Hall show right here in our mags, so that you could have known about it ahead of time. Unfortunately, it was impossible because our mags had already gone to press before the date was decided upon by both Carnegie Hall and our producer — and once all the arrangements had been made it was too late to get another date. But, don't lose faith, Believer! All is not lost! Luckily, a recording was made of the whole senses-shattering spectacle, and we're gonna try to turn it into an album which we'll offer for sale as soon as we can work out all the dazzling details. So, if you can bear the suspense, watch this space in the months to come — save your pennies — and tune up the ol' turntable, 'cause the best is yet to be!

Excelsior!

NOW YOU CAN CHARGE IT, TOO!

AT LAST A RECORD AND TAPE CLUB WITH NO "OBLIGATIONS"—ONLY BENEFITS!

Ordinary record and tape clubs make you choose from a few labels—usually your own! They make you buy up to 12 records or tapes a year, usually at list price—to fulfill your obligation. And if you forget to return their monthly card, they send you a item you don't want and a bill for $4.98, $5.98, $6.98, or $7.98! In effect, you may be charged a most double for your records and tapes.

BUT RECORD CLUB OF AMERICA ENDS ALL THAT!

We're the largest all-label record and tape club in the world. Choose any LP or tape (cassette and cassette), including new releases. No selections! Tell us many, or as few, or no selections at all! NO OBLIGATIONS, ENTIRELY!

With our Club there are no cards which you must return to prevent shipment of unwanted LPs or tapes (which you would have to return at your own expense if you have failed to send written notice not to ship). The postage alone for returning these cards each month to the other clubs costs almost an additional $2.40. We send only what you order.

HOW CAN WE BREAK ALL RECORD AND TAPE CLUB RULES?

We are the only major record and tape club NOT OWNED, NOT CONTROLLED, NOT SUBSIDIZED by any record or tape manufacturer anywhere. Therefore, we are not obligated by company policy to push any one label. Nor are we prevented by distribution commitments from offering the very newest LPs and tapes.

SPECIAL BULLPEN BOMBURST:

When Stan, Roy and Gil decided to embark on Marvel's first truly interplanetary series a couple of issues back, they never dreamed it would stir up so much excitement. They did it mainly because they'd always wanted to — and quickly found out that about a zillion other comics buffs had been panting eagerly for the same thing. At least, that's the case if we can judge from the Martian mountain of mail we received on the origin of Gullivar Jones as Warrior of Mars in CREATURES ON THE LOOSE #16. Here's a random sampling of some of the more cogent comments received:

Dear Stan, Roy and Gil,

When the newsmagazine, "Etcetera" told me of your new series, "Gullivar Jones, Warrior of Mars," I wasn't excited. When I saw it on the newsstand I wasn't elated, and bought it out of curiosity. After reading it, I thought it was — GREAT! It was much better than I expected. I especially liked the use of the first person narrative. It involves the reader faster and allows the character to give a better description of the events that are occurring to him.

I have not read Edwin Arnold's original version, but Roy has a great story no matter what the source. I hope you'll avoid the pit-fall of having Jones a mere Mars-based Conan. Much as I like the Cimmerian's type of story, one does get tired of seeing nothing but slashing and killing. There are other avenues to explore like supernatural and/or science fiction. Combine them successfully with the sword and you're bound to have a winner.

As seems to be the Marvel practice lately, by the time you read this letter, Gil Kane will probably no longer be the artist. I sincerely hope he remains, being one of my favorite illustrators. He did justice to the Mars world and to the script. Bill Everett's inks didn't go well with his art in places, but to date, he's the best inker for Gil on your staff.

Mark DerMarderosian
230 Melrose St.
Auburndale, Mass. 02166

Chalk up one for your crystal ball, Mark. A brief stint on upcoming issues of our sister-mag CONAN THE BARBARIAN (ever hear of it?) kept Gil from penciling this issue's epic — but he hopes to be back on the series by next ish. Tune in then — same time, same station! As for riotous Ross Andru — well, we've put him on still another long-awaited Marvel series which will be debuting in just a month or two, and which is destined to rank with Conan and Warrior of Mars as one of the harbingers of a brand new Marvel Age of Comical Stick around and see what we mean, okay?

And now, without further ado, a few briefer excerpts from the long, long list of letters we received on Gully's first outing. Ready... set...

Dear Editor,

CREATURES ON THE LOOSE #16 was perhaps the beginning of this particular magazine's development into an item worth purchasing. Gullivar Jones is an interesting character with infinite possibilities!

Dennis Allen, 215 Jay St.
Saginaw, Mich. 48602

Dear Stan, Roy, and Gil,

Concerning your new feature "Gullivar Jones, Warrior of Mars": I like it!

RFO, KOF John R. Bair, 60 Mathews
Pontiac, Mich. 48058
(Supporting Member of ACBA)

Dear Creature Creators,

Gil Kane has always been one of my favorite artists and always will be... The writing was superb. Rascally Roy showed his talent once more at adapting another writer's work (witness his Conan, Kull, and now Gullivar of Mars) to the comic-book medium.

Mike Swanson, P.O. Box 344
St. James, N.Y. 11780

Dear Stan, Roy, and Gil,

I was disappointed. I feel that if the same story had been extended to take up the whole book, leaving off at the same place (Gullivar's fall to the barge), it would have had a considerably greater effect. The whole thing looked like a rushed job! This is, I should say, the first time I have found something seriously disappointing in one of your magazines, and I've been reading them for quite some time.

Mark Shaw, 5907 Arabian Tr.
Austin, Tex. 78759

Dear Stan, Roy, Gil, and Bill,

You've produced the perfect comic — except for one thing. Red Wolf was given his own mag after just one story. Can Gullivar Jones do the same if reader response is favorable?

Rick Keefe, RD #1, Box 80
Etters, Pa. 17319

You know it, Rick! Contrary to Mark Shaw's sincere and well-stated belief quoted above, the conception and execution of that first Gullivar Jones tale was no more rushed or hurried than any other comic-mag. It's just that science fiction (and related items) have always been a chancey business in the whacky world of comics, so we had to work up to it. But rest assured that, at the earliest possible moment, the brain-bustin' Bullpen is waiting to unleash a full-length mag entitled GULLIVAR JONES, WARRIOR OF MARS! Roy's become too busy of late to continue the series which he conceived and initiated with Gil, but he thinks that he and Merry Gerry Conway have found an admirable replacement in one George Alec Effinger, who's a published s-f author in his own right and who debuts with this scar-studded issue. Let us know what you think of 'im! He worked hand in glove with Roy and Gerry on this one — but next ish, we unleash him on his own! Be here, okay?

Dear Stan, Roy, and Gil,

You stated that Richard Lupoff felt that Lt. Gullivar Jones: His Vacation may have been one of ERB's sources for inspiration when he wrote A Princess of Mars. How does Mr. Lupoff account for Gustavus W. Pope's book, Journey to Mars, published in 1894, which, according to Sam Moskowitz (in his book Under the Moons of Mars, page 335) "contains and anticipates most of the elements in Edgar Rice Burroughs' Mars stories, including a red princess, sword battles, various colored races, extreme longevity, wizards, an officer from earth who is imbued with supernatural powers because of the effect of the atmosphere, flying reptiles which can be saddled to carry a man, and various other similarities"? I would be tempted to think that Mr. Burroughs may have received more inspiration from a possible reading of this book than from a possible reading of Arnold's. Or does Mr. Lupoff know something that I don't?

Incidentally, I would very much like to read Pope's book; doubtless it is very rare and therefore forever out of my grasp. Is there any book (perhaps similar to Green's Into Other Worlds) that discusses it in depth? I would appreciate any information you could give me.

Thanks again for "Gullivar Jones."

And thanks for your comments, Hank. We don't wanna get bogged down in an argument over Gullivar Jones' effect on other works of popular literature — like we said a couple of issues back, it doesn't really matter anyway — but we wanted to print your missive so that some other Marvel madman may comment on it. Any takers, people? Dick Lupoff, even?

WHY NOT MAIL IT TODAY?

Look at these pleased reports from LaSalle students. Many success stories of this kind come to us every year—from people who began their career planning by mailing the LaSalle coupon for information.

Yes, many graduates attribute their increases in income largely to their LaSalle spare-time training.

LaSalle students have one ambition in common—to get out of the ranks of the untrained and earn more money and respect in a better job. Isn't that your goal too?

Without interfering with your present work—and by devoting only a little of your spare time—you too can prepare for advancement in the field of your choice through LaSalle home study. The cost is low.

LaSalle has been a leader in home education for more than sixty years, enrolling over 2,000,000 ambitious men and women in its many courses. You study under the supervision of LaSalle's experienced faculty. Upon satisfactory completion of your study, you receive the LaSalle diploma—a recognized and respected credential.
